General Citing Tips

1. A Works Cited list should be organized alphabetically by author's last name.

2. A Works Cited list should be double spaced with a hanging indent and the words Works Cited appear at the top of the page.

3. In-Text citations should be placed directly after the quote or paraphrase
    MLA: (Author's Last Name page number)
    Example: (Furlong 95)

4. In-text continued: If the author is mentioned in the sentence then only provide the page number (95)

5. Publication date should be formatted day month year with the month abbreviated. It could also be: month year or season year depending on how it was published.
    Examples: 26 July 2016
                Dec. 2015
                spring 2016

6. Abbreviations: If the names of the months are more than 4 letters abbreviate to the following:
Jan.   Feb.   Mar.   Apr.   Aug.   Sep.
    Oct.   Nov.   Dec.

7. How to cite multiple authors:
Two authors:
Last, First M., and First M. Last.
Three or more authors:
Last, First M., et al.
